BIO

Kristýna Sibinská is a Czech drummer experienced in rock, pop, jazz, and fusion, she brings reliability, versatility, and strong musicianship to every project

Her musical journey began at the age of seven behind her first drum kit. What started as lessons quickly grew into a lifelong passion that led her to the Jaroslav Ježek Conservatory in Prague, where she graduated in 2022.

In 2023, Kristýna earned a full scholarship to Berklee College of Music, where she is now pursuing a Performance major and minors in Live Music Business and Production & Recording for Musicians. She expects to graduate in 2027.

Her experience spans rock, pop, jazz, and fusion, making her a flexible and genre-open musician. Known for her reliability, empathy, and collaborative approach, Kristýna brings not only skill but also presence and professionalism to every project and performance.
